His remains were followed to the grave, in the city burying ground, yestrrday afternoon, by an immense train of his fellow-citizens, many of whom had been his friends and neighbors for more than a quarter of a century. The funeral sermon-a most impressive and appropriate discourse -- was delivered in the Presby terian Church, of which Mr. G. was a mem ber, by the Rev. John T. Edgar. The deceased was buried with Masonic honors, the solemn ceremonics of the orders being the County Court of Chariton county, on the estate conducted by the Rev. J. T. Wheat, Rec-
